

Historical Marker - L417 - Old Cheboygan County Courthouse (Marker ID#:L417)

Front - Title/Description

Old Cheboygan County Courthouse

When Cheboygan County was organized in 1853, the courthouse was located in Duncan (now a part of the city of Cheboygan). In 1860 the county board of supervisors moved the county seat to Inverness Township and purchased this property from Bela Chapman. This courthouse, built by J. F. Watson in 1869 at a cost of three thousand dollars, held its last circuit court session in 1899. Since then it has served as a fire station, a church, and a community center.

Significant Date:

Civil War and After (1860-1875)

Registry Year: 1975    Erected Date: 1980

Back - Title/Description

Marker Location

Address: 229 Court Street

City: Cheboygan

State: MI    ZipCode:

County: Cheboygan

Township: Benton

Lat: 45.63959700 / Long: -84.48130800

Web URL: