

Front - Title/Description

Fanny M. Bair Library

Fanny M. Bair, a member of one of Vicksburg's pioneer families, built this library and presented it to the Ladies Library Association on November 21, 1902. Charles A. Fairchild of Kalamazoo designed the building with "modern conveniences" like electric lighting and running water. The Ladies Library Association administered the library until ownership was transferred to the village of Vicksburg in 1948.

Significant Date:

Industry and Invention (1875-1915)

Registry Year: 1987    Erected Date: 1989

Back - Title/Description

Marker Location

Address: 120 West Maple Street

City: Vicksburg

State: MI    ZipCode:

County: Kalamazoo

Township: Schoolcraft

Lat: 42.11761500 / Long: -85.53316700

Web URL: