

Historical Marker - L2 - British Cannon (Marker ID#:L2)

Front - Title/Description

British Cannon

Early on the morning of July 17, 1812, British troops set up a cannon on this height overlooking Fort Mackinac. This move, coupled with the size of the British forces, resulted in the American garrison's surrender.

Back - Title/Description

Significant Date:

Revolution and War (1760-1815)

Registry Year: 1959 Erected Date: 1959

Marker Location

Address: Rear of Ford Mackinac

City: Mackinac Island

State: MI ZipCode:

County: Mackinac

Township:

Lat: 45.85821600 / Long: -84.61702000

Web URL: